

HOW WE LIVE UNITED

My name is Azeem. Together, with my brother, Aleem, I volunteer to help my community. Getting involved is so important, however you choose to do it. Between the two of us, we've worked with many organizations including the Red Cross, East Alabama Food Bank and 4-H.

My name is Aleem. My brother and I want to make a difference. We've collected money and supplies for local charities and acted as leaders in local youth groups. Making a difference can be as easy as picking up trash or raising money or supplies for people in need. Just knowing that one person can have a big impact is a powerful thing.
