

HOW I LIVE UNITED

My name is Jennifer. I intend to teach my children that it's a gift to make a difference in the lives of those who are facing unexpected loss or long term hardship. I want my children to understand what volunteerism is and how it can make a difference.

I always try to actively volunteer in some way. I participate in the Opelika Dixie Youth League that is a partner of the United Way and also gave time to assist Katrina victims at Auburn's Red Cross Shelter. I am proud to say that I helped organize a 5-K run that benefited the Auburn Day Care Centers, a United Way Agency that serves low-income children and families by providing affordable, high-quality childcare. I have a special appreciation for hospice volunteers. Seeing my grandfather in hospice is what inspired me to give the gift of giving. This is my community, my home, and these are the people I live with.
