Although the Wonder Woman tiara and bracelets have pretty amazing powers, they are not nearly as empowering as teaching someone to read or mentoring a child into a world of possibilities. That is a true Super Hero. Every day, volunteers in our community give their time, talents and energies to make a difference in this community. You can be a Super Hero too by being a person of action. Please join me, LaFaye Dellinger, Mayor of Smiths Station in LIVING UNITED and supporting the United Way and their efforts to change lives right here in our community.
