

I Don't Just Wear the Shirt

I LIVE it.

My name is Phyllis. I've worked for the City of Auburn for 35 years and have been a loyal contributor to the United Way. When I'm not working or attending college, I volunteer my time tutoring for the Lee County Literacy Coalition. I believe that knowledge isn't any good if it's kept to yourself; therefore, the more I learn, the more I want to share with others.

I volunteer because there's always someone who needs help, and if I needed assistance I would want someone to help me. I want to help because I believe that's what we're supposed to do; help others. United Way means everyone coming together for a common good. That's how I LIVE UNITED.

GIVING MY TIME: THAT'S HOW I LIVE UNITED
